

Conformation Classes Now at Obedience Laboratory!!!

www.obediencelaboratoryhome.com

Interested in learning how to show your dog? Does your dog need some ring practice before the big show?

Come to Obedience Laboratory starting THURSDAY, APRIL 23, 2009 at 8:00pm! You will get ring practice, learn how to polish up that free-stack, and discover how to present your dog to his best advantage in any competition.

- Small Class sizes for most 1:1 time with hands on instruction
  - Large, very clean, 1700 sq. ft. building
  - Fully matted building
- Walls of mirrors so you can see how you and your dog look from the Judges perspective
- Conveniently located Downriver, near Metro-Airport and easy access from all free-ways
- Class is located at 28055 Bredow Road (between Inkster Rd and Middlebelt) in Huron Township
- SIGN UP NOW!!! Class sizes are limited!!!

Class fee - $10/hr

***Upon your first night of class please bring a copy of your dogs shot records.

For additional information call or e-mail:

Jackie Takacs (734) 782-4026 jackiet1953@yahoo.com

Marie Sajewicz (734) 626-3131 ishowdogs@hotmail.com

Classes are taught by Marie Sajewicz, an all breed handler for 15+ years. Marie is known for her Zareba Rhodesian Ridgebacks and has put AKC Championships on numerous dogs of various breeds. Originally she started showing in Junior Showmanship at age 11 where she learned under professional handlers, senior breeders and mentors and won many Best Junior Handler awards until she was no longer able to compete in Junior Showmanship, then she started handling other dogs professionally. Marie is currently working toward her AKC Junior Showmanship judging license.